

HALL OF FAME

Distinguished Alumnus

Darlene Witt

A life-long member of the New Prague community, Darlene Schoenbauer Witt, 1953 graduate of NPHS, has earned a place in the hearts of many for her genuine compassion and service to others. Led by her faith, Darlene has dedicated her life to lending a helping hand wherever needed. After high school, Darlene completed secretarial school at the Minnesota School of Business and became administrative assistant to the superintendent and principal in New Prague. She and her husband, Jack, ran a dairy farm and raised their nine children there. The tragic loss of two young sons in the 70's brought the New Prague community forward to witness Darlene's God-given fortitude. She has served for many church and civic organizations and received the Archdiocesan CCW award for the Volunteer of the Year in 2004. The CCW, 4-H, Hospital Auxiliary, and Peace Center are all recipients of her volunteerism. She completed her secretarial career working with New Prague Community Education for 10 years. As a Trojan parent and grandparent, Darlene has cheered on generations of teams, theatre casts, choirs, bands, etc. Darlene's extraordinary commitment to her community and to serving others in her beloved New Prague is truly admirable and an inspiration to others.

Inducted 2018